The James Elliott Fire-Stock Remnants.

Such a remnant day has not occurred in years. All the short lots and water-stained stuffs that came from the fire sale were set aside for an opportunity of A SPECIAL SALE, have placed price tickets on them so that this day will take all the lots at once, and there will be no "hereafter." Everywhere about the house will be seen traces of these give-away stuffs. Each class in their alloted departments.

Most all of the goods will be good as fresh from the loom after washing, but they are not to be taken back nor are they exchangeable, as they are put on sale to be cleared clean out to-day.

Miss Neva H. Evans will, it is un stood, in a few days succeed J. M. G. Fitzpatrick as postmaster of Swansboro', who has held that position under the present administration. Soon after the incumbent went into office he appointed Miss Evans his assistant, and she served in this capacity until about six months ago, when she re signed. About a month ago a petition Mr. Fitzpatrick with being, by no means, the man to hold so responsible a position and asking his removal. A number of itizens of responsible standing refused to sign this, not having any proof that its charges were well founded. It is not known how much weight the paper had with the postal authorities. Several weeks ago an inspector visited the office, and so far as can be learned the postal that the ware in good above. ffice books were in good shape. Miss Evans is a very capable lady, and

The New Cure for Kidney, Bladder and Urie Acid Troubles. Almost everybody who reads the news-papers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing kidney, liver, bladder, and uric acid troubles.

Swamp-Root has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless to poor to pur-chase relief, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of the Dispatch, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free, by mail, also a book teiling more about Swamp-Roo; and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in the Richmond Daily Dispatch. and send your address to Dr. Klimer & Co., Blaghamton, N. Y. The regular 50-cent and $1 sizes are sold by all first-
